SHALINI BHARGAVA

MANAGING TRUSTEE'S MESSAGE

Dear Viewers,

It gives me immense pleasure to know that a series of inservice training sessions and interactive workshops are being organised for RLPS teachers. The glimpses of the same have appeared in this Issue of RLPS News Letter – COMPASS.

I am of the view that teachers must update their knowledge to impart the contents with latest pedagogy for the benefit of our beloved RLPians. My good wishes to one and all, who have contributed to this issue of COMPASS.

From Principal's Desk.....

Dear Readers,

The new digital edition of RLPS News Letter : COMPASS for the quarter : July to September 2025, is the presentation of creative-skills of RLPians through a photo-galore.

Teachers' Day celebration has not only been the occasion for 'Teacher-learner Meet' to share the thrilling moments but also to felicitate and honour RLPS teachers with the support and guidance provided by our Hon'ble Managing Trustee Mrs. Shalini Bhargava.

We continue to implement the vision of our Founder Chairman – DR. (Pt.) Vishwanath Sharma. Good Wishes!

— Ashok Kumar

The most important determinant of student learning is teacher quality. To keep on top of their field, teachers must be consistently exposed to new approaches and knowledge. The National Education Policy (NEP) 2020 provides a new perspective on teaching and learning by emphasizing experimental learning, art integration and learner centricity.

RLPS, JHANSI organized a workshop on the topics "Knowing Digital Tools For Teaching- Learning" and "Competency Based Education" for the teachers of Rani Laxmibai Group of Public Schools incorporating all the three branches as RLPS Jhansi, Datia and Lalitpur on 19 July, 2025 in its school campus.
